DAILY - ARITHMETIC - Diversified Media

The days we watch for turns in JUM are on the degree counts each month of 1,27 12,55 and 21,43. As I have shown in class, all stocks will turn mostly on three key dates each month, which should be read in conjunction with price and trading only with the trend unless there are other compelling reasons, such as an announcement.

Damn good date for a low though isn't it, on the 21,43 degree count for July - incredible isn't it. Gann knew a thing or two I can tell you.

the retracement greater than 50% indicates not so much strength therefore may get a lower top higher bottom before the stock decides what to do next, move stops up buy across the top as the move up confirms the higher low off 4th and 5th July, 12,55 degrees

buy here, stock stays just above a mid point on a good degree count, 1,27
